FIGHT ENDS IN ARREST OF SUSPECT ON TWO COUNTS OF ASSAULT

Two people were slashed with a knife following an argument late Saturday evening, resulting in the arrest of a Vacaville man.

At approximately 11:27 p.m. Saturday night, the Vacaville Police Department Communications Center received a call regarding a fight involving multiple subjects on Mono Drive. Officers responded to the area and contacted residents in the 400 block of Mono Drive, where they located several witnesses, a trail of blood and a knife.

A short time later, Vacaville dispatch was contacted by one of the victims, a 48-year-old Hispanic male, of Vacaville, who said he had a laceration to his left hand and was waiting in the first block of Sunset Circle for police contact. Police talked to the victim and determined that the suspect in the case, Ruben Maravilla, and a second victim were taken to the 100 block of Virginia Street by family members.

Officers responded to the Virginia Street location and found S-Maravilla and the second victim, a 25-year-old Hispanic male, of Fairfield, who was also suffering from a deep laceration to his left hand. The second victim was transported to Vaca Valley Hospital for treatment. S-Maravilla was arrested and booked into Solano County Jail on two counts of assault with a deadly weapon.
