POLICE ARREST FOUR AFTER FOLLOWING TRAIL OF STOLEN MARIJUANA

Four people were arrested following the discovery of stolen medical marijuana plants in a motel room in which they were staying.

Vacaville police were dispatched to the 500 block of Camellia Way at 2:52 a.m. on October 13, 2011 following reports of someone screaming and vehicle tires squealing away. Officers arrived in the area and were flagged down by the victim, who told police several medical marijuana plants had been stolen from his backyard. The victim is a medical marijuana patient with all the appropriate paperwork authorizing him to grow and use marijuana for medical reasons.

At 3:22 a.m., officers were dispatched to the Motel 6 on Lawrence Drive where a witness had reported finding a large amount of marijuana near the pool. Officers arrived and located marijuana leaves on the ground near the trunk of a vehicle, which was registered to S-Brianna Crossman.

Officers followed a trail of marijuana leaves on the ground and located two large freshly-cut marijuana plants on the ground near the pool, and determined the plants were left there by subjects staying in one of the rooms at the motel.

A trail of marijuana leaves led officers to Room 222, which had been rented by S-Crossman, where they contacted four subjects. When the room door was open officers saw several freshly cut marijuana plants on the bed.

The victim responded to Motel 6 and was able to identify the marijuana plants as belonging to him from string and ribbons he used during the growing process.

One of the subjects, S-Darrius Anderson, was on active California Department of Correction Parole and lives in the area of where the marijuana was stolen. Another suspect, S-Shawn White, was on active Solano County Juvenile Probation. A further search of the room was conducted and an unloaded handgun was located in the bathroom garbage can.

S-Crossman, 19, of Vacaville; S-White, 19, of Vacaville; S-Anderson, 20, of Vacaville; and S-Treshawn Rogers, 18, of Sacramento were arrested and booked into Solano County Jail on charges of possession of stolen property, possession of a firearm by a convicted felon, probation violation, parole violation, and conspiracy to commit theft.
